

A giant construction crane hoists Nielsen's 80-foot transmission tower to the roof of Augustana's Stavig Hall. The eight story building's roof was specially adapted to handle the tower. It is likely that Augustana's KAUR-FM will also broadcast from the tower and negotiations are being pursued which could result in Minnesota Public Radio sending its signal from it as well.